THE MISSION CONTINUES

Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work (John 4:34).

Doing the Father's will and finishing His work was the Lord's primary focus and utmost desire; it was His satisfaction and fulfilment. That same Spirit and conviction drove us to complete the full preaching of the Gospel to every nation by the end of 2025. But the mission of the Gospel continues.

We must keep preaching and teaching the nations how to live as the Lord instructs in Matthew 28:19-20, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen." This is the Father's will, and it should be your vision and shape your life's priorities.

The nations need to be taught the Word of God; they need to be discipled and prepared for the coming of the Lord. God has given us the Rhapsody of Realities as a divine tool for this purpose. Through it, by the power of the Holy Spirit, we're teaching and helping God's people live to their fullest potential in Christ.

Habakkuk 2:14 declares, "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea." Let your life be driven by this vision. Every soul you win, every copy of Rhapsody of Realities you distribute, every seed you sow in faith into the spread of the Gospel, all contribute to the fulfilment of the great vision of Habakkuk 2:14.

Therefore, refuse to be distracted. Live for the joy of unveiling to others the Christ-life, educating them on the transcendence and supreme dominion of the righteousness we possess in Him. Be committed to discipling the nations, teaching them and establishing them in the truth of the Gospel.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for counting me faithful to be a part of your end-time work. I live for the fulfilment of your divine mandate to teach all nations and impact people around the world with the knowledge of your living Word. I'm strengthened, stirred and empowered by the Holy Spirit for this great task, for my life is for your glory and the advancement of your Kingdom, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 2

THE MESSAGE OF CHRIST'S SALVATION

And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come (Matthew 24:14).

The message of Christ's salvation is God's answer to the darkness and confusion in the world. It's our responsibility to ensure that everyone hears and receives it before the Lord's return. The Lord said the Gospel would be preached in all the world for a witness, and then the end would come.

This means the timeline of history was so designed that the Church should finish the work. You're part of the generation chosen to wrap up the ages. Don't sit back watching others do it. Participate actively through intercessory prayer, strategic involvement in Gospel initiatives, financial partnership, and bold witnessing.

The Spirit of God has equipped you to reach your world. 2 Corinthians 3:5-6 says, "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament...." Acts 1:8 declares, "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.”

Remember, the mission continues. The mandate and urgency of the Spirit is clear: God wants all men to be saved and to come unto the knowledge of the truth that there's only one God, and one mediator between God and mankind, Christ Jesus, who gave Himself as a ransom for all humanity (1 Timothy 2:5-6).

He's the answer to every problem, the solution to the pain, misery, decay and disease in the world. He's the life-giver. He's the true God and eternal life: “And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life” (1 John 5:20).

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for committing to me the responsibility of the Gospel. I'm empowered by your Spirit to reach my world with the message of Christ's love, power and righteousness. Through us, your grace and truth are made known everywhere and prevail in every nation, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

INSPIRING FAITH IN OTHERS

...when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? (Luke 18:8).

Faith is the language of the Kingdom. It's how we live, serve and please God. The Lord Jesus raised a remarkable question in our opening verse: "When the Son of man comes, shall He find faith on the earth?" Our assignment isn't only to preach salvation but also to teach the nations how to live by faith.

Faith is not a religious idea; it's a spiritual principle by which we make divine realities real in this material world. Faith calls things that are not as though they were. Faith is acting on God's Word. It is acting your believing; it's doing what the Word says, regardless of circumstances or how you feel. When you learn to live this way, nothing shall be impossible to you.

The Lord Jesus said, "...for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you" (Matthew 17:20). Challenge others by your own faith. As you share the Gospel, let your words communicate confidence, victory and the dominion of the Word. Help others understand that the life of faith is a life of divine possibilities. Faith always works, because it's based on the irrefutable, infallible, unchanging, all-powerful, living Word of God. Hallelujah!

CONFESSTION

I'm full of faith; my words and lifestyle inspire faith in others and produce divine results. Nothing is impossible to me because I live by the Word. Through me, many are brought into the Kingdom and taught to live the life of faith in Christ Jesus. Amen!

UNDERSTANDING THE ANOINTING

But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him (1 John 2:27).

Some Christians think of the anointing as something that comes and goes, but that's not your reality as a new creation in Christ. The anointing of God abides in you permanently. It's the presence and power of the Holy Spirit that equips you to function in the divine life.

In the Old Testament, the kings and priests were anointed with oil as a symbol of consecration. But in the New Testament, it's different. When you received the Holy Spirit, you received a person into your life. You received the fullness of the Spirit without measure, not in parts or degrees. You have the totality of God's Spirit resident in you, with power.

You don't need to ask for more anointing or more power from God. What you need is a greater consciousness of the One who lives in you. The more you're aware of His presence, the more His graces and power function through you. Stop "waiting" for the anointing to come; it's already in you. That anointing teaches, guides, strengthens, and empowers you for success and impact, as read in our opening scripture. Walk in this consciousness every day.

I'm full of divine wisdom, strength and ability to accomplish every task. The power of God works mightily in me and through me, producing excellence in all I do, because the Holy Spirit lives in me. He guides me and teaches me all things; He empowers me for success and impact. Blessed be God!

MONDAY 5

YOU HAVE THE FULLNESS OF THE SPIRIT

For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him (John 3:34).

As discussed in our previous study, when you received the Holy Spirit, you didn't get a portion of Him; you received the fullness of the Spirit. God doesn't give the Holy Spirit by measure in the New Testament. You've received the same Spirit that raised the Lord Jesus from the dead and empowered Him to work miracles, heal the sick, cast out devils, and raise the dead.

Now that you're born again, don't wait for another outpouring or a higher dimension of the Spirit; you already have all of Him living in you. What you need is the bold expression of His person and presence within you. The more conscious you are of the Spirit's indwelling, the more He manifests Himself to you and through you.

The Holy Spirit isn't a feeling, a wind, or a power; He's the Father that dwells in you, just as the Lord Jesus said in John 14:10, “...the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.” When He said this, He was referring to the Holy Spirit. Therefore, refuse to think you're limited, disadvantaged or hamstrung. You're full of divine energy, wisdom and ability.

You're more than a conqueror. You can do all things. You've overcome Satan, the world, every adversary and adversity, because the greater One lives in you: “Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world” (1 John 4:4).

When you speak, it's God speaking through you. When you lay hands on the sick, it's the Holy Spirit ministering through you. You're His living temple, His tabernacle of witness, the ark of His presence. You carry His glory, righteousness, grace and love everywhere you go.

PRAYER

Thank you, blessed Father, for granting me the fullness of the Spirit; His presence and power are active in me, producing excellence, victory and success in every area of my life. I'm full of divine wisdom and power, and I manifest the glory and dominion of Christ today, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

TUESDAY 6

GRACE AND THE ANOINTING

But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ (Ephesians 4:7).

There's a vital distinction between grace and the anointing. Many use both terms interchangeably, yet the Word of God shows they're not the same. The anointing refers to the consecration and indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, the empowerment that sets you apart for God's purpose.

Grace, on the other hand, refers to the divine enablement and favour granted you according to your specific calling and responsibility in the body of Christ. Every Christian has received the same anointing, for it's the same Holy Spirit that dwells in us all. That anointing abides in you, never diminishes and brings special grace into your life "But to each one of us grace has been given as Christ apportioned it" (Ephesians 4:7 NIV).

However, grace operates differently. You can grow in grace (2 Peter 3:18), the grace on your life can be multiplied (2 Peter 1:2), and you can receive more grace, as the Bible says, “...he giveth more grace...” (James 4:6). Yes, He gives more grace, but He doesn’t give more anointing. You can grow in grace as you grow in faith, in the knowledge of God and revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace determines your scope of influence and effectiveness in the calling God has given you. Recognise, therefore, that while your grace can increase, your anointing is complete. You already have the fullness of the Spirit. Live with this understanding and allow the grace of God in your life to multiply through your knowledge of God and fellowship with the Word. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for giving me your Spirit without measure and for the grace to fulfil my divine calling. I walk in the understanding that I’m fully anointed and empowered by the Holy Spirit to accomplish your purpose for my life. As I grow in grace and knowledge, I have greater results in my life, impact and fruitfulness, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

WEDNESDAY 7

FRUITFUL AT ALL TIMES

And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing (Isaiah 10:27).

The blessing of God works in your life irrespective of where you are or who's against you. It doesn't matter that the environment is hostile or friendly towards you; you're a success everywhere you go. God ordained you to be fruitful everywhere and in every place; fruitful at all times. Hallelujah! The anointing comes with grace (Ephesians 4:7).

This is your heritage as the seed of Abraham. Opposition becomes your opportunity, and adversity turns into your advantage. There's a supernatural force at work in you and in your behalf that alters conditions in your favour, making you fruitful in every good work as you increase in the knowledge of God.

The word "anointing" in Isaiah 10:27 also means "fatness." It conveys the idea of fruitfulness, growth and unstoppable increase. You "enlarge" so much that the "yoke," any limitation or restriction around you, is broken. The blessing makes you so prosperous that what once constrained you can no longer contain you.

The testimony of Isaac, as revealed in Genesis 26:12-18, is a case in point. He sowed in a time of famine and reaped a hundredfold the same year, so much so that the Philistines envied him. His increase defied the economy, logic and human comprehension.

The same blessing, and even greater, is at work in you today. It's working in your finances, your health, your ministry, and every area of your life, creating the right conditions for your success. The blessing in you perfects things around you. Speak words of faith; act on the Word, and let the power of the blessing manifest. It'll make the impossible possible and the barren fruitful.

Furthermore, Psalm 1:1-3 says, “Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.” This is your life; be ever conscious of this reality.

Thank you, Lord, for I'm blessed and empowered to prosper. The blessing at work in me, creates opportunities and favourable conditions for my advancement. Nothing can limit my progress, for I'm anointed for greatness and increase. I'm growing, expanding and flourishing every day, by the power of the Holy Spirit, in Jesus' Name.

Amen.

THURSDAY 8

THE EPITOME OF THE BLESSING

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise (Galatians 3:29).

When God said to Abraham, “And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing” (Genesis 12:2), He wasn’t referring to something abstract or symbolic. He was establishing a divine lineage of blessing, one that now flows through you in Christ.

You’re not merely someone who’s blessed; you’re the very embodiment of the blessing. The blessing of God is a living force within you. When you show up, prosperity arrives; progress sets in; righteousness is in force. When you speak, doors open, lives are transformed. You’re a distributor of divine favour and grace.

Everything about you radiates the blessing. Understand that the blessing isn’t something you seek to receive from outside; it’s who you are. You’re the fulfilment of God’s promise to Abraham. Just as Abraham became great through the blessing, you’ve been empowered to prosper and to make others prosper.

Your presence in a home, workplace, or city is a divine advantage to that place. Let this be your mindset. Declare continually, “I am blessed, and I’m a blessing. I’m a divine advantage everywhere I go.” This consciousness will transform your world and manifest the glory of God through you.

CONFESSION

I’m the seed of Abraham, and therefore, the blessing of God flows in and through me. I’m a solution and a divine advantage to my world. I bring prosperity, peace and progress to all those that come in contact with me. I’m the expression of God’s goodness and the dispenser of His grace, glory and righteousness. Amen!

KEEP GROWING AND KEEP WINNING

Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this (Isaiah 9:7).

Growth is a divine attribute. Everything connected to God grows, and as a child of God, that is your testimony. Your growth has no limits. You've been brought into a life of ever-increasing glory, ever-increasing grace, ever-increasing faith, and ever-increasing knowledge. Your expansion and progress are not seasonal; they're eternal.

Just as the increase of Christ's government and peace has no end, your growth in life, influence and impact should have no end. I've often shared the testimony of how the Lord said to me, "Son, keep growing"; He gave me license to grow endlessly. Now, I share this with you.

God has granted you divine authorisation for limitless progress; no barrier, opposition, or circumstance can halt your advancement. The Bible says, "Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all" (1 Timothy 4:15). Here, the Spirit, through the Apostle Paul, shows us how to sustain and maintain that life of ever-increasing greatness, success, progress and continuous prosperity: it's by meditating on the Word.

The word “appear” is from the Greek, “phaneros” and it means to spread abroad, to make widely known. Your progress isn’t meant to be hidden or obscure; rather, it’s continuous. You’re empowered to keep making progress, towering higher and higher as a mighty edifice. You have the life of God in you and that life knows no stagnation.

Refuse to think small or settle for less. Keep stretching forward. Keep expanding your vision and enlarging your borders. The Bible says the path of the just is as the shining light that shines brighter and brighter unto the perfect day (Proverbs 4:18). That’s your story. Until the rapture takes place, keep winning, keep growing, and keep making progress from glory to glory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for giving me the grace to grow endlessly. My increase, progress and success have no limits because I'm propelled by the power of the Holy Spirit to always win. Nothing hinders my advancement. I continuously grow in influence, in wisdom, and in grace, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SATURDAY 10

THE WORD AT WORK IN YOU

For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword... (Hebrews 4:12).

God's Word is living and active; it has the power to change anything and anyone. When you receive the Word into your heart, it produces what it talks about. It heals, transforms the mind, produces prosperity, and causes you to walk in victory. The Word works when it is received and acted upon. It's programmed to produce results in the one who receives it in faith.

It's the reason we're enjoined to be doers of the Word and not hearers only: "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only...whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (James 1:22-25). The blessing is in doing the Word. It's not enough to hear it; you must believe it, declare it, and act on it.

When you respond to the Word rightly, it takes root in your spirit, dominates your thoughts and actions, and prevails over circumstances. Think of the Word as a living seed. Once planted in a receptive heart, it grows and produces fruits of righteousness, health and success.

That is why meditating on the Word is so vital; it causes the Word to move from your head into your heart, where it becomes a living reality that governs your life, activating its creative power.

Remember, the Word created and sustains the universe and everything therein: John 1:1-3, In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God... All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. Hebrews 1:3 tells us that God upholds all things by the word of His power.

Therefore, the Word can and would surely build your life and your future if you give it preeminence in your life. It'll sustain your success and prosperity, and keep you in perpetual victory. Psalm 1:1-3 (TPT) beautifully describes what happens when you're a doer of the Word: you're like a tree deeply planted and rooted by the brooks of bliss, bearing fruits in every season of life. You're luscious, ever blessed and ever prosperous. Blessed be God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, your Word is alive in me and at work in my body, my mind, and my spirit, producing divine health, wisdom, and success. I live by the Word, and it propels me on the pathway of unending blessings, glory and excellence today, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE POWER OF MEDITATION

This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success (Joshua 1:8).

Meditation is one of the most powerful principles in the Word of God. It's the spiritual process that causes the Word to move from your mind into your spirit, where it becomes a living force. Through meditation, the Word moves from information to revelation and from revelation to manifestation. Your life becomes the living epitome of the Word.

Meditating on the Word goes beyond merely thinking the Word in your mind; it involves muttering, talking under your breath until it dominates your consciousness. This is an important key to permanent and undeniable success, as read in our opening scripture.

From muttering the Word in meditation, you're to graduate to the third and higher level of meditation, which is to shout or roar (Hebrew—Hagah). You constantly “roar” the Word in victory and celebration. It produces boldness, faith and insight. These and more are the benefits of meditation. It aligns your thoughts with God’s thoughts and synchronises your words with His will.

The more you meditate, the more the Word dominates your senses, emotions and circumstances. Soon, you see and speak as God does, and the impossible becomes possible. Don’t allow a day to pass without meditating on the Word. Set time apart to ponder the Scriptures, speak them aloud, and visualise their fulfilment in your life. As you do, the Word will energise your spirit and produce in and for you what it talks about. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for causing your Word to dwell in me richly, bringing ineffable blessings to my life. My spirit is energised, my mind is renewed, and I walk in divine wisdom, strength and success; your Word in my heart and in my mouth is my advantage and my guarantee of non-stop progress in Jesus’ Name. MONDAY 12

RULE YOUR WORLD WITH YOUR WORDS

For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned (Matthew 12:37).

Words are powerful; they're tangible spiritual instruments of creation. God created the universe by speaking, and being made in His image, you have His creative ability. Your words are much more than sounds; they carry spiritual substance. They frame your life and rule your world.

Your life rises or falls to the level of your confessions or your mouth-work. When you speak in line with God's Word, you set in motion the divine laws of success, prosperity, and victory. Conversely, when you speak words of fear, doubt, or defeat, you give room to the adversary. The Bible says, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue..." (Proverbs 18:21).

1 Peter 3:10 says, "For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile." To refrain your tongue from evil is to refuse to speak anything that contradicts the Word of God. It means to speak the Word only and always, irrespective of the sensory evidence or perception.

Every time you speak, release faith, not fear; life, not death; and victory, not failure. Your mouth is the control centre of your destiny. Don't wait for situations to change before you speak; speak the change you want to see. Declare who you are in Christ, what you have, and what you can do through Him.

Your words are divine tools for rulership; rule your world with your words. You're a king, and kings reign with words. Ecclesiastes 8:4 says where the word of a king is, there's power. Kings make decrees, and the Bible says you shall decree a thing, and it shall be established unto you (Job 22:28). Use your mouth to issue the right decrees about your life, your health, your family, your future, your environment and your destiny. Hallelujah!

My words are full of power and life. I speak wisdom, victory and success always. My words prevail always because they're backed by the authority of heaven. I rule my world with my tongue, creating the realities of the Kingdom and living in the victory of Christ today and always, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE GOD-LIFE IN YOU

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life... (1 John 5:11-12).

Eternal life isn't just about living forever; it's the God-life in you; the organic and existential attributes of deity in you, which makes you taxonomically different from the natural man. This life makes you superior to Satan, sickness, disease, failure, and death.

The Lord Jesus didn't come to give us religion; He came to give us the God-life (John 10:10). In John 10:27-28, He said, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish...." When you have eternal life, you're severed or separated from those who could perish.

John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Eternal life makes you indestructible and invincible. It makes you a partaker of the divine nature. As one who's born again and has received the God-life, you're hundred per cent divine despite having a human body.

Your body is the outer casing for the real you, your spirit, wherein is the life and nature of God. That's the reason your body is impacted by the power and glory of the God-life in you. Another beautiful truth is that you're a distributor of that life—the God-life in you.

Anything and anyone you touch comes alive because you're born in the image and similitude of the life giver, the Lord Jesus Christ, the second and last Adam (read 1 Corinthians 15:45-47 ESV). As He is, so are you in this world (1 John 4:17). You're a life-giver, a minister of life.

Wherever you go, you bring healing, peace and transformation. When you lay your hands on the sick, the life in you flows out of you to bring restoration. When you speak words of faith, life is transmitted into every situation. You're of a higher class, a divine species, chosen and separated by God to manifest His life, glory and righteousness in the earth. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for giving me eternal life and thus elevating me to your class of being. I function with divine wisdom, power and excellence. I'm a dispenser of life and the fragrance of your glory everywhere; thank you, Lord, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WEDNESDAY 14

CHOSEN TO RULE THE WORLD

If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world... (John 15:19).

The Lord Jesus said you're in the world but not of the world. You've been handpicked by God and separated from the world to live the divine life, to live and play by a different set of rules. You're a child of the Kingdom; therefore, you're to live in this world with Kingdom mentality. Rule and reign over the systems, elements, structures and circumstances of this world.

This world is subject to you; the words of the Lord Jesus in John 16:33 make this very clear. He said, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” When He overcame the world, you were in Him. He overcame the world, not for Himself but for you.

Therefore, in Him, you've overcome the world and the god of this world, Satan. You're superior to Satan, his cohorts of darkness, and the corrupting influences of this age. You belong to a royal class. You've been brought into a higher realm of existence, with dominion and excellence.

When others complain about their circumstances, you bring solutions. You're not part of the crowd demanding change; you're the one effecting changes through your words and prayers. You have a Father who's greater than all, and He lives in you; you represent Him. Therefore, never think or talk like the ordinary man.

Understand who you are; your calling is to reveal God's excellence and righteousness to your world. You've been set as a light in a dark world. You're Heaven's best; chosen, royal and supremely blessed: “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, [God’s] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light” (1 Peter 2:9 AMPC).

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for choosing me out of the world and setting me apart for your glory. I'm conscious of my divine origin and heavenly calling. I function from the realm of glory, shining your light and dispensing your grace to my world. I live as royalty, revealing the beauty and excellence of the Kingdom, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THURSDAY 15

THE GOSPEL IS REAL

For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty (2 Peter 1:16).

The Gospel of Jesus Christ is not a fable or fairy tale; it's real. The Lord Jesus truly came. He truly died, was buried, rose again, and ascended into Heaven. These aren't symbolic acts; they're historical and spiritual truths with eternal significance. Many in the world think Christianity is just another religion or a moral philosophy, but they're critically wrong.

Christianity is the life of God manifested in human flesh. We serve and preach a living Christ, One who can be known, experienced, and proven. The Holy Spirit was sent to help us demonstrate the reality of the Gospel. He confirms the Word, the Gospel we preach, with signs, miracles and wonders.

2 Timothy 1:9-10 tells us that through the Gospel Christ brought life and immortality to light: “Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Never allow doubt or unbelief to dilute your faith. The proof of our message is the supernatural life we live. Every time you heal the sick, cast out devils, or lead someone to Christ, you're proving that the Lord Jesus is alive and the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation to everyone who believes (Romans 1:16).

The world doesn't need another argument about religion; they need proof. And you're the proof and proof-producer that the Gospel is real, the Lord Jesus is real, and that eternal life is available today only in Him and through Him. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Blessed Father, how glorious it is to be a witness of the resurrected Christ; my life is proof that Jesus is alive. Through me, the world experiences the reality of the Gospel. Thank you for causing me to walk in the supernatural, manifesting the glory and power of the Gospel as I lead many to righteousness, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 16

THE HOLY SPIRIT: THE POWER OF OUR MESSAGE

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me... (Acts 1:8).

In our previous study, we reviewed the reality of the Gospel, but did you know that the Holy Spirit is the power behind the Gospel? Without Him, our words would be empty and lifeless. But with Him, our message comes alive with divine energy and proof. He's the one who confirms the reality of Christ in us and through us.

The Holy Spirit makes the difference between mere religion and a living relationship with God. When you received Him, you received the ability to function like the Lord Jesus. You became a carrier of God's power, capable of producing supernatural results. No one can live for, or serve God without the Holy Spirit. He's your Comforter, Counsellor, Helper, Intercessor, Advocate, Strengthener, and Standby.

He's in you and with you forever (John 14:16 AMPC). He's your divine partner. He's more real than any person around you. The more you fellowship with Him, the more His wisdom and power manifest in your life. Trust and depend on Him daily to guide your thoughts, inspire your actions, prayers, and energise your words.

With the Holy Spirit, you can never be ordinary or disadvantaged. He's the One who makes you a bold and effective preacher and minister of reconciliation; read our opening scripture again. He empowers you to live victoriously and manifest the glory of God. He's the Father of glory, and the Father that lives in you. He's the power of our message.

PRAYER

Blessed Holy Spirit, I thank you for your indwelling presence and power in my life. You're my comforter, teacher, and guide. As I yield to your ministry in my life, I live in victory, excellence and dominion; with you, I can do all things; I win only and always, in Jesus' Name.

Amen.

RESPOND RIGHTLY TO HIS VOICE

...To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts... (Hebrews 3:15).

God speaks to us through His Word and by His Spirit, but not everyone responds rightly to His voice. When you hear God's Word, He expects a response. Your response activates His power and brings His Word to life in your situation. In the days of Samuel, God called him repeatedly, but Samuel didn't know how to respond until Eli taught him to say, "...Speak, LORD, for thy servant heareth..." (1 Samuel 3:9).

Once Samuel responded correctly, God began to talk to him. Likewise, when you respond to God in faith, His voice becomes clearer, and His presence manifests more strongly in your life. Never take the Word of God lightly. Each instruction, correction, or prompting of the Spirit requires a faith-filled response. So, to every Word from God, you say, "Yes, Lord," and act accordingly.

Not responding to God's Word quickly can weaken your ability to hear from Him. But when you train your spirit to act promptly on the Word, the Spirit of God floods your heart with light, direction and grace. So always be quick to respond in faith whenever you receive God's Word, whether during your personal study, prayer, or as a prophecy. Oftentimes, His voice may sound gentle, but it carries divine power.

PRAYER

Dear Father, as I respond to your Word with faith and love, I'm tremendously blessed; my heart is flooded with your grace and truth, and I experience continuous progress and increase by the power of the Holy Spirit, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

SUNDAY 18

A DIVINE EXCHANGE

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him (2 Corinthians 5:21).

From our opening scripture above, we observe something really extraordinary about our righteousness in Christ: It's a product of divine exchange. When the Lord Jesus took your place on the Cross, He became sin for your sake, not a sinner, but the sacrifice for sin. He took up your sinful nature for you to become righteous with His righteousness.

That is the greatest transaction in history. It's for this reason that we say the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the Gospel of substitution. God made the Lord Jesus, who knew no sin, to become sin for you so that you might be made the righteousness of God in Him. This was perfectly legal. The Lord Jesus fulfilled all the righteous demands of justice.

1 Peter 3:18 says, “For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God....” Since it was perfectly legal for the One who knew no sin to become sin in our behalf, it was perfectly legal for the sinner who never did anything right to be declared righteous in His Name. Now, God sees you in Christ as holy, blameless and justified.

Romans 4:25 says the Lord Jesus was delivered to death for our offences, and was raised back to life for our justification. Therefore, your righteousness isn't a product or function of your moral efforts or good works. It's also not something you grow into; it was imparted to your spirit the moment you were born again, giving you right standing with God and the ability to do and live right. Hallelujah!

Having this understanding changes everything about your walk with God. It gives you boldness in prayer and in your confessions. You no longer approach God as a sinner seeking mercy, but as the love-child of a loving heavenly Father, reigning by grace through righteousness.

Walk in this consciousness. Refuse to let guilt or condemnation rob you of fellowship with the Father. You were justified freely by His grace; therefore, stand boldly and reign in life through Jesus Christ: "For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ" (Romans 5:17 NIV). Hallelujah!

CONFESsION

I'm the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus and I live in the consciousness of this truth. I have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of Jesus Christ. Sin, guilt and condemnation have no power over me, for I reign in life by grace through righteousness. Hallelujah!

THE CONSCIOUSNESS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame (1 Corinthians 15:34).

Until you become conscious of your righteousness, it will not work for you. To be righteousness-conscious means to be aware that you have been justified, cleansed and accepted before God. It means you no longer see yourself through the eyes of your past but through the righteousness of Christ.

Guilt and fear lose their power when you're righteousness-conscious. This is what Paul meant when he said, "Awake to righteousness." Wake up to who you are! You're not a sinner saved by grace; you're a new creature in Christ Jesus. Old things have passed away, and all things have become new (2 Corinthians 5:17).

This awareness transforms your fellowship with God and gives you the mentality of dominion in life. Don't say, "I'm just an ordinary person, trying to please God!" No; you're not ordinary; you're the righteousness of God. Think, talk, and live righteousness, and you'll produce fruits of righteousness.

PRAYER

Dear heavenly Father, thank you for the impartation of your righteousness to my spirit. I'm conscious of who I am in Christ; sanctified, glorified and justified. I walk boldly before you, and I reign in life through the grace of Jesus Christ. I live triumphantly by the power of the Spirit, producing fruits and works of righteousness in Jesus' Name. Amen.

TUESDAY 20

DOMINION OVER ADVERSITY

If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small (Proverbs 24:10).

As Christians, we don't faint in the day of adversity; we win, we reign, we prevail over every storm. Your strength is not small because the Lord Himself is your strength: "God is my strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect" (2 Samuel 22:33).

1 John 4:4 "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world." You hail from God; therefore, your strength is of God: "Not that we are fit (qualified and sufficient in ability) of ourselves to form personal judgments or to claim or count anything as coming from us, but our power and ability and sufficiency are from God" (2 Corinthians 3:5 AMPC).

Can you see why you can never be hamstrung, defeated, or disadvantaged? Stay ever conscious of who you are in Christ, especially of your righteousness in Him. That consciousness produces a divine audacity in the face of adversities; you walk right over them! You consume challenges like bread.

When you know you're righteous, nothing and no one can intimidate you; be it Satan, guilt, condemnation, or adversities. That's because you understand that you stand in Christ's stead and function in His Name. That consciousness gives you the audacity to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, knowing that nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Therefore, dominate sickness, demons and death. When you pray, do so with the confidence and assurance that you're being heard. Speak with authority. Let your life exude the confidence of divine authority. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for making me righteous and granting me boldness through the Holy Spirit. You're my strength, and I reign in life by the power of righteousness. I live fearlessly, walking in divine authority and confidence. My words are filled with power, and my actions are full of grace, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

IMPACT YOUR WORLD WITH HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

Let your light so shine before men that they may see your moral excellence and your praiseworthy, noble, and good deeds and recognize and honor and praise and glorify your Father Who is in heaven (Matthew 5:16 AMPC).

Philippians 1:11 talks about the fruits of righteousness: “Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.” When the righteousness of God was imparted to your spirit, it came with the capacity to produce fruits consistent with God’s nature in you. These fruits are visible expressions of your new life: acts of love, purity, excellence, peace, and truth.

The Holy Spirit in you causes you to walk in righteousness naturally. You don’t struggle to do right; your spirit delights in the Word and produces fruits that glorify God. Just as an orange tree naturally produces orange fruits, the new creation in Christ produces works and fruits of righteousness as expected, because of the life within.

The world may admire and applaud men for good deeds, but true righteousness comes only from the life of God in a man. Now that you're born again, manifest Christ, His glory and His righteousness. Your conduct, speech, and attitude should always reflect His divine character and attributes because you're born of Him.

Everywhere you go, bring in justice, integrity and goodness. Let your life be replete with the fruits of righteousness. Our opening scripture says, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 5:16).

God wants the world to experience the outward manifestations of the righteousness of God in you. He wants His glory demonstrated through you. He has made you a living testimony of His righteousness. So, let your life radiate His goodness, excellence and love. Let your words bring salvation, healing, prosperity, love, joy and peace to those in your world. Impact them with the righteousness of God in you.

I'm filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory of God. My life radiates goodness, excellence and love. I produce fruits that glorify my Father and reveal His divine nature in me.
Hallelujah!

THE EXCELLENCE OF THE NEW MAN IN CHRIST

And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him (Colossians 3:10).

When you were born again, you were recreated in righteousness and true holiness. You're not a "forgiven sinner" but a brand-new creature, made in the image and likeness of God. Colossians 1:22 describes you as holy, unblameable and unrepentable in the sight of God. In other words, there's nothing for God to accuse you of or find fault with; He holds absolutely nothing against you.

Furthermore, this new man thinks, talks, and acts like God. He's God's excellent handiwork: "For we are God's [own] handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, [born anew] that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us [taking paths which He prepared ahead of time], that we should walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live]" (Ephesians 2:10 AMPC).

You're not trying to be holy or righteous; you were born that way. The more you renew your mind with this truth, the more this divine reality will govern your thoughts and actions and be expressed in your life. You're not an upgraded version of your old self; that old man has ceased to exist. You now carry the very life and nature of Christ: pure, perfect, sanctified, glorified, and justified.

This is why you must refuse to accept weakness, failure, defeat or sin as normal. You were created to express the glory and virtues of divinity in your everyday life: “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, [God’s] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvellous light” (1 Peter 2:9 AMPC).

You've been called to glory and excellence: “For His divine power has bestowed upon us all things that [are requisite and suited] to life and godliness, through the [full, personal] knowledge of Him who called us by and to His own glory and excellence (virtue)” (2 Peter 1:3 AMPC). Walk in the consciousness of your new identity. Manifest the beauty, love, wisdom and purity of Christ everywhere. That's your life. That's your calling. Glory to God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for recreating me in righteousness and true holiness. I live in the consciousness of my new nature. I manifest your excellence, wisdom, purity, love and divine power. My life is a testimony of your grace, righteousness and glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 23

GOD'S PRECIOUS GIFT TO ALL

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever (John 14:16).

We often say that the Holy Spirit is God's greatest gift to the Church, but did you know that, in truth, the Holy Spirit is God's gift to all humanity? God said in Joel 2:28-29, “And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh...And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.”

The Apostle Peter re-echoed the same prophecy in Acts 2:16-18 after it had come to pass. Further in the 38th and 39th verses, he said, “...receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.” Did you notice that? The gift of the Holy Spirit is for all, and He's been poured out upon ALL flesh.

If you haven't received Him, you should do so right away. First, be sure that you've confessed Jesus as Lord of your life. If you're yet to do so, turn to the Prayer of Salvation page of this devotional, pray that prayer, meaning it with all your heart. Then, simply declare, "I receive the Holy Spirit, and He lives in me from this day forward."

The Holy Spirit is not a wind, a force, or a feeling;

He's the very personality of the God-head at work in us. When Jesus ascended to Heaven, He sent us the Holy Spirit to live in us, to guide, strengthen, and empower us for the divine life. He's the One who makes Christianity real. Without Him, the Gospel would be mere words, but with Him, it's a living reality.

The Holy Spirit unveils Christ to you, teaches you the Word, and causes you to walk in the supernatural. He's the power of the God-head. With Him in your life, you have the dynamic ability to effect changes and live the transcendent life in Christ. He's your helper, your teacher, your strengthener, and your friend.

Appreciate and treasure His Person and ministry in your life above all else. Fellowship with Him in prayer, worship, and meditation on the Word, and His wisdom will guide you, His power will sustain you, and His glory will fill your life and be evident in all that you do.

PRAYER

Dear Father, thank you for the precious gift and blessing of the Holy Spirit; my teacher and my guide, the One who unveils to me the realities of the Kingdom and guides me in the path of glory and righteousness. I walk in wisdom, power and victory; I'm strengthened and continually refreshed by the Holy Spirit in my life, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

THE ADVANTAGE WITHIN YOU

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me... (Acts 1:8).

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of power. When He came to live in you, He brought the dynamic ability to cause changes. That power is not dormant; it's stirred through prayer, faith, and bold confessions of the Word. He's also the Spirit of revelation. He unveils mysteries and brings divine insight to your spirit. He's the advantage within you.

Through Him, you understand things others can't grasp. It's part of the blessings and benefits of praying in the Spirit. When you spend time praying in the Spirit, the wisdom of God rises within you, and answers flood your spirit. Your spirit is enlightened with innovations and solutions.

Every time you face a challenge, remember that the Holy Spirit is the advantage within you. You're never helpless or defeated because His power is active in you. Depend on Him for direction, solutions and strength. As you yield to Him and fellowship with Him, His glory manifests in and around you. He'll talk with you, walk with you, and reveal God's heart to you always.

Through fellowship, He communicates divine ideas and guidance to you. He makes the Word come alive in you and keeps your spirit aflame with passion for the Lord. You'll never walk in confusion or fear because His presence provides direction and assurance. God never intended for you to struggle through life alone; He gave you His Spirit so that you might live in continual victory.

Additionally, the Holy Spirit is the Father at work in you. Through His ministry, you can do the impossible and work the miraculous. Make time each day to commune with Him; speak to Him from your heart, and listen for His voice in your spirit. Acknowledge Him in all that you do, and you'll always walk in victory.

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for the fellowship and partnership of the Holy Spirit in my life. I cherish His divine presence and person in me; He's my guide, my comforter and my ultimate advantage. Even now, your glory, wisdom, power and love are manifest in my life because I walk in the Spirit and I'm led by the Spirit, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YIELD YOUR MIND TO THE SPIRIT IN PRAYER

For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful (1 Corinthians 14:14).

Praying in tongues is one of the most powerful spiritual exercises you can engage in. It's the language of the Spirit through which you utter divine mysteries. When you pray in tongues, your spirit communicates directly with God, bypassing the limitations of the natural mind.

However, your prayer becomes far more impactful and effective when your mind is engaged as you speak in tongues. Fix your attention on what you're praying about. There may be the tendency for your mind to wander as you pray, but refuse the distractions and deliberately keep your mind focused on the Spirit.

As you do, He'll flood your mind with visions, thoughts, and ideas. These may be revelations from God or creative insights that He inspires within you. He enables you to see possibilities, create godly imaginations, and bring divine realities into manifestation. So, always engage your mind in prayer to perceive what the Spirit is revealing. As He grants you visions, respond accordingly; that's how you partner with Him to bring Heaven's plans to pass on earth.

The Christian life is a walk in the Spirit. The Spirit-filled life is a life of rest, joy and victory. He keeps you strong, refreshed and full of faith. So, even in prayer, depend on His guidance, follow His instructions, and yield to His influence. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, as I pray in the Spirit, you reveal divine mysteries to me, and I create and shape circumstances in line with your perfect will. Thank you for synchronising my spirit with your will, causing me to function in divine wisdom and power, and walk in your glory, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

YOU'RE SPECIAL

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a dedicated nation, [God's] own purchased, special people, that you may set forth the wonderful deeds and display the virtues and perfections of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light (1 Peter 2:9 AMPC).

Being born again, you're special, you're royalty. You're different because you carry the very life of God within you. This isn't a mere religious idea; it's reality. Hallelujah! You have eternal life in you, and that makes you a dispenser of eternal verities. It helps to understand why the Lord Jesus said, "And these signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" (Mark 16:17-18).

This shows that you're not ordinary; you're to impact others with the life and nature of God in you. You're a blessing. Remember what God said to Abraham; He said,

"I'll bless you and make you a blessing" (Genesis 12:2). And the Bible says, "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made..." (Galatians 3:16); we're the seed of Abraham.

Don't see yourself as one of the masses or among the needy; you are a king-priest. The Lord Jesus chose you out of the world (John 15:19); you're not a commoner. You were handpicked by God as His peculiar treasure. Carry this consciousness. Even now, declare: "I'm special. I'm royalty. I'm God's peculiar treasure; excellent and full of glory." Blessed be God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for choosing me and setting me apart as your peculiar treasure. I walk in the consciousness that I'm royalty, full of your life, excellence and glory. I'm a blessing to my world, a dispenser of eternal verities, and through me many discover their identity and purpose in Christ. I'm bold, unwavering and effective in this calling, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

TUESDAY 27

A GIFT WELL DESERVED

For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ (Romans 5:17).

There's something profoundly beautiful about the righteousness we have in Christ Jesus: even though it was given to us as a gift, it is a gift well deserved. Someone might say, "But I thought it was an unmerited favour?" Not exactly; righteousness wasn't given to us as an unmerited favour but as a well-deserved gift of grace, and I'll explain.

First, understand that Christianity didn't begin before the Cross, on the Cross, or even from the Cross; it began after the resurrection. What does this mean? When God raised Jesus from the dead, He raised Him with the righteousness of God. And the Bible says we were raised together with Him. When the Lord Jesus was raised from the dead, He was born again.

Recall the prophetic words of the Psalmist, echoed by Paul in Acts 13:33, "God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee." The Lord Jesus was the first of the new creation, and we were made alive together with Him. In Him, you became a new creation, not a sinner in need of mercy.

All your sins were buried with Christ. Your old nature was crucified with Him. Everything about you that was condemned or condemnable was nailed to the Cross with Him. Romans 6:4 says, "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life." So, when Jesus was raised from the dead, we were born into a newness of life; we were born with His righteousness. It wasn't unmerited!

We deserved what we got because we're born of Him. We belong to Him. Let this understanding guide your walk with God! This is the very message He sent us to preach and teach. He wants the world to know that they've been made righteous in Christ Jesus. They don't have to struggle for it; they don't have to try to attain it, because it's unattainable. It's a gift purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ; a gift well deserved, for He paid the price to make it so. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for granting me the understanding and revelation of my righteousness in Christ Jesus. I walk boldly in the consciousness that I was raised together with Christ, justified, perfected and born righteous. I reign in life, expressing your nature and fulfilling your will with boldness and joy, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

WEDNESDAY 28

IT REQUIRES THE SUPERNATURAL

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me... (Acts 1:8).

Preaching the Gospel requires the supernatural. Notice I didn't say the "spectacular" but the supernatural. The supernatural is that which is powered by the Spirit. The Spirit of God is in us and with us; He's the power of our lives. Our sufficiency is in Him. 2 Corinthians 3:5-6 says, "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament...."

The ministry you've been called into is the ministry of the Spirit, entrusted to you by the Spirit Himself. Without Him, you cannot fulfil it; but with Him, nothing is impossible. This is why your relationship with Him is absolutely vital.

As much as God wanted the early disciples to go out and preach the Gospel, He gave them a profound instruction: "And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high" (Luke 24:49). The empowerment came just as promised in Acts 2:1-4, when they were filled with the Holy Spirit.

From that moment, everything changed; it became dynamic evangelism. They preached the Gospel with boldness and demonstrated the power of God through miracles, signs, and wonders by the Holy Spirit. Hallelujah!

The message He gave us is one that's humanly difficult to believe without the supernatural. In fact, it was easier for those in Bible days to believe it than it is for people today, but even then, they still needed the supernatural. How much more, therefore, do we need it in our day! We need the proof of our message. And our heavenly Father is fully aware of this and has already made the necessary provisions.

You're not the one trying to convince God to give you proof; He's the one telling you that you need it. He's the one offering it. Many pray, "O God, I want to preach the Gospel with power," but He already knows that. He's the one stirring that desire in your heart. So, pay attention as He guides you in the steps to take.

Having received the Holy Spirit, you now have the power to be an effective witness, a proof-producer, just as we read in our opening scripture. Trust His grace at work in your life. Trust His Word. When He speaks to you and gives you guidance in your heart, receive it. His guidance is always supernatural, even when it may not appear outwardly spectacular.

PRAYER

In the Name of the Lord Jesus, I function always in the power of the Spirit. I'm yielded to the Holy Spirit who inspires my thoughts, words, and confirms my message with miraculous signs and wonders. I'm a dispenser of divine power and solutions. Through me, lives are transformed and nations are impacted, by the Spirit of God. Amen.

THURSDAY 29

YOU'RE GLORIOUSLY DISTINGUISHED

...our Saviour Jesus Christ...gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works (Titus 2:13-14).

The psalmist, in Psalm 135:4, makes a remarkable declaration: “For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.” This is your present-day reality. You're God's peculiar treasure; chosen, consecrated, and glorious. He set you apart for His glory and divine purpose.

Ephesians 1:4 says, “According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love.” Think about that! You're blessed beyond what you presently know; therefore, value who you are and what you have. Never belittle yourself or see yourself as ordinary. The Lord has ordained your greatness.

There're no two fingerprints alike in the whole world. No two people are exactly the same, and what God wants is to manifest Himself in and through you in a way that He has never done through anyone else. You're utterly unique and gloriously distinguished.

1 Peter 2:9 says, “But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light.”

And guess what? His glory in you is ever increasing. That's one of the beautiful things the Word of God accomplishes in your life. As you study it, as you listen to it, as it's ministered to you, you're like gold being refined, like precious metal being polished, shining ever more brilliantly.

The more you meditate on the Word, the more glorious you are. Hold that image, that glorious image of you that you see in the Word. That's the real you: holy, excellent, washed, sanctified, and justified. Hallelujah!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for making me your peculiar treasure, separated unto you for your glory and divine purpose. I walk in the consciousness of who I am in Christ; holy, excellent, sanctified and full of glory. Your beauty and righteousness are revealed in and through me more and more as I behold and live by your Word, in Jesus' Name. Amen.

FRIDAY 30

SPEAK IN TONGUES AND CREATE VISIONS

For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries (1 Corinthians 14:2).

Did you know that you can actually create visions while speaking in tongues? This is one reason you must let the Holy Spirit guide your mind in prayer. There's a difference between a spiritual vision from God that He shows you through your spirit and a spiritual vision that your spirit has the capacity to create. These are two different things.

Many times, we wait only for the visions that God gives, but He doesn't grant those kinds of visions every day, because they are specific to certain kinds of guidance. However, through the New Birth, God has lifted you into His class of being. We're associates of the God-kind, partakers of the divine nature (2 Peter 1:4). And as God is, a creator, so are you. This means you can actually use your mind to create visions for what you want to see. So when you speak in tongues, one of two things should be expected: you can create a vision with your mind, your spirit-led imagination, or the Holy Spirit Himself reveals something to you.

So if there're circumstances you desire to create or change, whether in your church, your city, your life, or even in a nation, speak in tongues. And through the Spirit, create the vision. Then discern by the Spirit if that vision aligns with the will of God. If it does, step into it and bring it to pass.

Suppose that you were praying for your city because you want to see a change, a move of God in your city. You want to see the expansion of the Kingdom of God in your city. As you pray, begin to see and create the change you want. Use your imaginative power to create the visions of your desire.

God has positioned you as His representative, so you can create your own visions in line with His perfect will. This is why you must give yourself often to praying in other tongues; pictures will come to you. Imaginations will be stirred in you. Select the ones you want and present them before the Lord. Once He endorses them, you'll know; then you can go ahead and act on them. Praise God!

As I speak in other tongues, I create visions and realities that are consistent with the perfect will of God. My spirit is synchronised with the Holy Spirit, and I function in higher realms of creativity, revelation and influence. I chart the course of my life, my city, and my world in alignment with God's plans and purposes. I walk in perpetual victory and continual advancement by the Spirit. Amen.

SATURDAY 31

YOU HAVE THEM ALL

According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue (2 Peter 1:3).

There's something powerful about the righteousness of God at work in you; it causes everything in your life to align with His divine purpose and provision. It's a righteous thing with God to do you good, because that's His nature. It's consistent with His righteousness to channel every necessary resource toward you, ensuring that you lack nothing for all He's called you to do.

Ephesians 1:3 says He's blessed us with ALL spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. There's no blessing from God that's missing in your life; you have them all! Also, ponder again what we read in our opening scripture: His divine power has given you everything you require for life and godliness. The word godliness there refers to your life of godliness, the things God has called you to do, your life in God.

So think for a moment; what do you require to fulfil the godly life God has called you to? It's available. You already have it. Satan may suggest otherwise, but he's a liar and not a factor. Instead, declare, “I walk by faith in God’s Word. I have what God says I have. The Lord is my Shepherd; I refuse to lack. All things are mine.”

This must be your mindset; you must accept it as your present reality. Everything that’s consistent with your course of life comes to you, because you’re walking in the light of your divine supply and abundance. All things are yours (1 Corinthians 3:21). 2 Corinthians 9:8 AMPC says, “...God is able to make all grace (every favor and earthly blessing) come to you in abundance, so that you may always and under all circumstances and whatever the need be self-sufficient [possessing enough to require no aid or support and furnished in abundance for every good work and charitable donation].” And He’s done it! Blessed be God!

PRAYER

Dear Father, I thank you for granting me all things that pertain to life and godliness. I live in absolute abundance, walking in my inheritance in Christ. I don’t lack anything, for you’ve made all grace to abound toward me, and I am furnished liberally for every good work. I walk in the light of your supply, fulfilling your purpose with joy and excellence, in Jesus’ Name. Amen.

7 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD GO TO CHURCH

As a Christian, it's important for you to identify with a local assembly, a church you can call your HOME and participate fully in the activities. Here are some of the reasons you must go to church:

1. God Said So

God desires His children to attend church meetings. The admonition is clear in Hebrews 10:25 for us not to forsake the assembly of the brethren.

2. Jesus Did, Showing Us A Pattern To Follow

Jesus had a culture of going to "church." It was part of His personal discipline and devotion (Luke 4:16).

3. It's The Vehicle By Which You Function In The Body Of Christ

The local assembly is a microcosm of the spiritual body of Christ. You function in that Body by functioning in the local assembly.

4. The Church Is The Pillar And Ground Of Truth (1 Timothy 3:15)

The Church is the pillar and ground of Truth where you're taught the Word of God. The teaching of God's Word is crucial for victorious living.

5. The Church Is A Place Of Fellowship With Other Christians

Fellowship with other Christians is essential to the growth of a Christian. We sharpen ourselves as we fellowship together in church.

6. The Church Is A Place Where Christian Growth And Character Are Enhanced

God ordained certain offices in the Church for the benefit of the Christian; for growth and to sharpen his spiritual development (Ephesians 4:11-16).

7. The Church Is A Place Of Training

The Church is a place where discipline is imparted. God sets instructors who are able to instruct you in the truth and help you culture your life.

“A New Beginning”

My life was a big mess that seemed irredeemable—sinking deeper into drug and alcohol abuse, and crimes that kept me on the run. Every attempt to change only led me further into trouble. Frustrated and tired of the life I was living, I cried out to God for help. A few months later, God sent me Rhapsody of Realities, the Messenger Angel. I began to study it diligently, embracing every prayer and confession with sincerity and faith. Gradually, I watched my life transform—from a criminal to a passionate soul winner. Glory to God!

“Healed Of Panic Attacks”

I used to suffer from severe panic attacks, especially while driving on the highway. Each episode brought anxiety and a terrifying sense that I was losing my mind, my body, and my life. Soon, fear began to dominate everything—I became afraid of people, afraid to travel by train or airplane, even afraid to drive. My life was falling apart. Then I encountered Rhapsody of Realities, and that was where my journey of transformation began, from the inside out. Through the Word, I was completely set free from fear. My peace returned, my joy was restored, and my love for life blossomed again. Hallelujah!

“Miraculously Released From Kidnappers”

It began as a normal day until I received the most terrifying call that my son had been kidnapped. The kidnappers demanded a huge ransom and threatened to kill him if the money wasn’t paid within hours. In that moment, I remembered the Word of God I had been feeding on through Rhapsody of Realities, the Messenger Angel. So I began to declare boldly that the Word would go as an angel and bring my son back. Miraculously, the next day, my son was released, completely unharmed and without a single coin paid in ransom. Indeed, the Word works!
